

DEC 28 2023

[Handwritten Signature]

LOVEJOY A. GOC

Academy of the Philippines
The Academy of the Philippines is a non-profit organization that provides training and development services to its members and the general public. The Academy is committed to providing high-quality training and development services that are relevant and effective. The Academy is a member of the International Association of Business Schools (IABS) and is accredited by the International Association of Business Schools (IABS).

Academy of the Philippines, Inc. is a non-profit organization that provides training and development services to its members and the general public. The Academy is committed to providing high-quality training and development services that are relevant and effective. The Academy is a member of the International Association of Business Schools (IABS) and is accredited by the International Association of Business Schools (IABS).

Academy of the Philippines, Inc.

